Fort Worden Conference Center provides a spectacular venue for conferences and retreats with over 68,000 square feet of meeting room and event spaces in unique venues and a beautiful outdoor setting. The park is a national historic landmark set on 434 acres, with more than 2 miles of beach along the Strait of Juan de Fuca and located in the historic seaport and arts community of Port Townsend.

The conference center campus houses two historic museums, a natural science museum and Port Townsend Marine Science Center that are open year round. Break time activities include kayak and bike rentals, tennis courts and of course, miles of hiking and biking trails. Historic and outdoor adventure tours for groups during conference or retreat can be arranged.
